

I am completely against allowing the ownership of media companies to be more concentrated than it is now. It is against the public interest of the United State to let a few big corporations control majority of the voice/image on the air way.